3) An indication that your field of study will include the visual arts. This may be a copy of the curriculum you intend to pursue.

4) A typed essay titled Artistic Goals, that outlines your artistic goals, not to exceed 100 words. For example, what do you plan to study in reference to art and future career goals that may include art.

5) Two letters of reference from people who know your artwork and can recommend your abilities as a student artist:

one from a tutor or educator and one personal reference from someone who knows you well (not a family member) such as an adult neighbor, coach, or minister.

6) Choose three of the five art works you will deliver.

Type a one to two paragraph essay on each. Number your essays and identify your art works with the same number. Describe your technique and motivation for creating each work. Topics might include, why do I create, why was I moved to create this, what does this creation mean to me, what is the medium, why did I select this creation to write about, what do I hope this creation means to others, what of my skills does this creation exemplify.

To be considered for the award, all applications must be complete as defined above and must be postmarked on or before April 12th 2024
