

ESAL Newsletter July 2023

www.esartleague.org

www.instagram.com/esalofva

July 3 (Monday) OBCA Ice Cream Social Kid's Art Table, HOS Playground, 5:30-7:30 PM

July 12 (Wednesday) Member Meeting "Can this Painting be Saved?" HOS Events Room, 6-8 PM

A 3 member panel will lead a discussion of paintings that need help. Everyone paints a stinker and this should be a light-hearted and solution-filled discussion on what works and what doesn't. Grab a stinker and let's have fun!

July 13 (Thurs), Paintout at Caroline McGavock's Home, Parksley, 10-3 PM Bring your paints, a chair a sack lunch, water and your enthusiasm. More details from

Marianne Francavilla: paintouts@esartleague.org

July 27 (Thurs) New Ravenna, 10:30-11:30: This is an exciting new scheduled tour of the premier tile designer and manufacturer, New Ravenna in Exmore. Amazing designs are created out of stone and glass mosaics! After the tour, we can stop at the Exmore Diner for lunch. Spaces are limited; to sign-up please email Marianne: paintouts@esartleague.org.

Phillip Spohn: An informative, and well received, Member Meeting in May on how to photograph your work!

Becky Rootes Memorial Art Scholarship winner,

Katie Dunkle: This year's Becky Rootes Memorial Art Scholarship of $2000.00 was awarded to Katie Dunkle at the Broadwater Academy graduation ceremony on June 2, 2023. Katie will be attending the School of Architecture at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. The scholarship was created with funds from the Rootes' family and donations to honor Becky Rootes, past President of the ESAL. It was Becky Rootes desire to provide opportunities for High School students on the Eastern Shore of Virginia to continue their education in the visual arts.

ESAL Summer Show:

