

ESAL Newsletter September 2023

www.esartleague.org

www.instagram.com/esalofva

September 6 (Wednesday) Member Show

Reception + Ribbons, HOS Events Rm. 5-7 PM:

Member Show Reception, Wine Wednesday and presentation of Awards of Merit as judged by Danny Doughty.

September 12 (Tuesday) Paint-out, Vessey

Orchards, Westover, Maryland. 10-3 PM: Right on the Pocomoke River, Vessey Orchards has lovely water views and a historic home with a barn. This is a Pick Your Own Orchard offering apples, fresh eggs and seasonal vegetables. Their website is: www.vesseyorchards.com . Just bring your paints, water, a chair and a bag lunch. Please reply to Marianne Francavilla at: paintouts@esartleague.org .

September 13 (Wednesday) Member Meeting, 'Can this painting be saved?' Events Room, 6-7 PM: Bring a painting or two that you would like some suggestions on. We ALL have some stinkers that can be saved! A panel discussion will be led by Carrie Jacobson, Marsh Ryon, and Julie McGowan. Members are encouraged to join the discussion in offering gentle critiques to improve our work.

September 20 (Wednesday) ESYCC September Show Submission Deadline:

Please contact Carol Barylski: brylfam@gmail.com . You are allowed to submit 3 paintings. Each painting must be labeled on the back with the artist, title, medium, size and a contact number.

September 22 (Friday) ESYCC Exhibit Change, 10-

11 AM: Please drop off new work from 10-11 AM to be displayed at the ESYCC. Paintings from the previous show should be pick up at this time. Curated work should be picked up from 2-4 PM.

September 23 (Saturday) Public Lands Day, HOS Grounds, 10-2 PM:

Public Lands Day is a terrific festival featuring many booths, entertainment and food trucks. ESAL provides an art table for children to create their own works. Volunteers are needed to set up paints and keep things rolling as the kids do their own thing. No teaching is involved. Contact Carol Barylski at brylfam@gmail.com to volunteer.

